

Western Mountain Region Summit

September 30–October 3, 2020

The six-state American Institute of Architects Western Mountain Region, established in 1959, is comprised of the AIA State Components of Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming. These states take turns every year to host the annual regional conference. This year the theme will be “Vision 2020”, as we are looking forward to having those in the architecture profession as key leaders for climate action and environmental stewardship – your support will be noticed!

Location: Hotel Albuquerque, 800 Rio Grande Blvd NW, Albuquerque, NM 87104

Western Mountain Region Summit Design + Honor Awards Gala

October 1, 2020

The AIA Western Mountain Region Design Awards program recognizes excellence in design, planning and construction of projects located anywhere in the world that are designed by AIA architects, registered and licensed in the Western Mountain Region. Entries from multi-office firms are limited to work designed in the office located in any one of the six states in the Western Mountain Region: Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming.

The intent of the design awards program is to honor the highest standards of design in response to user requirements, site, context, climate and environment. Each entry, regardless of size or classification, is judged individually on the basis of total design merit.

Location: Hotel Albuquerque, 800 Rio Grande Blvd NW, Albuquerque, NM 87104
